Misery In Persia.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 10.—Gen. Morera, the Persian Minister, who has arrived here, tells of deplorable conditions existing in his country, growing out of the cholera epidemic of 1904, the failure of the crops and the increase in the prices of the necessities of life.

Cleveland Lends $3,000,000.

CLEVELAND, NOV. 10.—Cleveland bank and trust companies loaned nearly $3,000,000 in New York city yesterday when the rates for call money ran up to 10 per cent. Every dollar they sent to that city was put out promptly, and more could have been sent with ease had they cared to spare it.

No Money to Stay at Home.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 10.—Many inquiries are received at the Pension Bureau from all parts of the country asking if a law has been enacted reimbursing those who paid money to be exempt from the draft in 1863-64, but the pension officials point out that there has been no legislation to warrant the reports which led to the inquiries.

Want Wife Clause Cut.

CHICAGO, NOV. 10.—Flat janitors insist on the mention of their wives being omitted from future contracts to be made with the Real Estate Board. A clause in the contracts under which the janitors have been working for the last three years provides that "his wife shall at all times be ready to assist him when called upon to do so."

Escaped Mob as Woman.

ROANOKE, VA., NOV. 9.—Gophers, a negro under sentence to hang to-day for the murder in Frank County several months ago of United States Deputy Marshal Z. B. Wade, but reprieved for two weeks, has been brought to Roanoke disguised as a woman from Rocky Mount, because of fear of mob violence. The Sheriff feared a lynching on account of the delay.

Countess Gets Divorce.

DETROIT, NOV. 10.—The Countess de Salassy, formerly Miss Louise May Becker, daughter of Col. Frank J. Becker of this city, has been granted a divorce by the Circuit Court of this county from Count Gyuila Hope Joseph de Salassy on grounds of desertion and non-support. The couple were married on Dec. 22, 1888, when the Count was secretary of the Austrian Legation at Washington.

Gift Goes to Pay Debt.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 10.—The Board of Trustees of the Catholic University has decided to apply the remaining $51,000 of the gift of $100,000 to the institution, made by Mrs. Gardner, of Baltimore, to the debt on the University. A special collection will be taken in all the Catholic churches on the first Sunday in Advent for the benefit of the institution at which the trustees hope to raise $100,000.

A Human Stone Quarry.

ST. CLOUD, MINN., NOV. 10.—John Janski, of this city, aged twenty-two, is a human stone quarry. Fourteen months ago he was a victim of an explosion in a granite pit, and ever since the doctors have been prospecting every time with good results. Up to date four thousand pieces of stone have been removed from various parts of Janski's anatomy.

Blue Dress Made Brown.

More home dyeing is done every year with Diamond Dyes. It is so simple and economical. For example: To change the color of a dress from blue to the stylish dark brown or a dark green, use dark brown dye; dark green dye makes bottle green; yellow dye makes green; green dye makes peacock green, and so on.

Diamond Dyes

can be used in surprisingly many ways about the home. The Diamond Dye Annual will tell you some things you never knew about Diamond Dyes. It is written by women for women. Free on request, together with 46 samples of dyed cloth. Address: DIAMOND DYES, Burlington, Vt.

The Bright, New UNDER-PRICE STORE

Overflows With Splendid Economies

Again we have overcome the vicissitudes of building changes and space limitations and found proper quarters and facilities for our Basement Under-Price Store.

The entire Fourth Avenue end of the Basement of the New South Building has been appropriated to the economy counters. From the Subway Station Entrance, clear through to the old Stewart Building, the Under-Price Offerings present their new and extraordinary attractions—worthy of the better and brighter store that now invites thrifty New Yorkers.

Look at Today's array—starting with this great news for parents of boys:

Norfolk and Double-breasted Jacket Suits at $4.75 a Suit

Worth $6.50 and $7.50

And each suit has an extra pair of trousers, besides. The valuations given are on regular suits with only one pair of trousers.

The suits were specially made up for us, by one of our very best manufacturers. The handsome mixed chevrons used are absolutely all-wool, and are the same as previously used in our own regular $6.50 and $7.50 suits. The Norfolk Suits have two pairs of bloomer trousers, the Double-breasted Suits have one pair of straight knee trousers and one pair of bloomers. Sizes in both styles for boys of 8 to 16 years.

$4.75 a suit, worth $6.50 and $7.50—and an extra pair of Trousers, besides.

Basement of New South Building.
